August 27, 2021

To assist our critically important nurses impacted by the August 28th renewal deadline, KSBN will have staff monitoring email and phones during the Saturday weekend standard office hours, (Aug 28) should you need assistance. Email communications stating your detailed needs is the preferred method for communicating with KSBN. We will assist inquiries in the order they are received.

Thank you for all your continued support during this challenging time and for everything you do to protect and care for the public.

Sincerely,
