1.0 Purpose of this Document

This document is an instructional guide on how to access and use the KSNB Public Record Gateway. It contains detailed information on each step in the process, as well as examples of each feature of this Gateway experience.

1.1 Why this process is important to KSNB

KSNB believes in the importance of allowing and supporting open access to all information defined as public information by the Kansas Open Records Act. The Kansas Open Records Act grants you the right to inspect and obtain copies of public records created or maintained by public agencies in Kansas. The Open Records Act, K.S.A. 45-215, et seq, as amended, declares that it is the public policy of Kansas that, generally “public records shall be open for inspection by any person.”

It is our hope and intention that any person requesting open records will use this Gateway to facilitate open and transparent communication about each request for public records. Of course, KSNB will accommodate any request presents in writing and delivered to KSNB; however, we want to encourage the public use of this Gateway to provide quality customer service.

1.2 How to use this user guide

As a public user of this record Gateway, please start with by reviewing the Table of Contents on the previous page of this document. This will show you the basic flow of the process of how to use this public record Gateway. You can click on any of the items listed in the Table of Contents and it will take you directly to that step of the process in this information Gateway.

1.3 What to expect in the record Gateway experience

Public records are defined as “any recorded information, regardless of form or characteristic, which is made, maintained, or kept by or is in the possession of any public agency.”

The Gateway starts with a record landing page called our “Reading Room.” This is place where you can request records, review the status of your requests and access the documents you would like to read. There are two basic types of public record request in the KSNB Public Record Gateway. The first is a request of a current list of all KSNB licensed nurses in the state of Kansas as of the first of each month of the request. The second request is for any other type of open record.
