

Educational Requirements for Advanced Practice Licensure

An applicant who completes an advanced practice registered nurse program:

1. After January 1, 1997 shall have completed three college hours in advanced pharmacology or the equivalent
2. After January 1, 2001 in a role other than anesthesia or midwifery shall have completed three college hours in advanced pathophysiology or its equivalent and three college hours in advanced health assessment or its equivalent
3. After July 1, 2009 shall have completed three college hours in advanced pathophysiology or its equivalent and three college hours in advanced health assessment or its equivalent
4. After January 1, 2003 the clinical component shall consist of at least 500 hours of clinical learning
5. After July 1, 2009, the clinical component shall consist of at least 500 hours of clinical learning in each clinical track